Wy  DRESSAGE

Kristi Wysocki's deepest passion is HORSES. She loves sharing her knowledge with others, no matter their experience. Her dedicated understanding of dressage is unparalleled. She left her engineering career in the oil industry in the mid 90's to pursue her passion as a dressage rider and never looked back. Kristi is an international dressage and para dressage judge (Olympic Equine Discipline) and national Dressage Sport Horse Judge. She has a reputation as being both empathetic and fair when judging at any level. Kristi has trained and taught dressage since 1989. For several years she also ran an equine rehabilitation center for horses recovering from injuries. Read more about Kristi here: <https://kristiwysockidressage.com/>
